Master curricula development. The aim of WP2 is to develop novel joint master degree program in MEP&M with novel teaching and learning methods through e-learning at the Montenegrin and Albanian HEIs. This will be achieved through 5 tasks.

DEV 2.1 Development of master program curricula (undergoing)

DEV 2.2 Development of teaching materials and methodology (undergoing)

DEV 2.3 Development of e-lectures (to be started)

DEV 2.4 Accreditation of master program curricula (undergoing)

DEV 2.5 Start-up and self-evaluation of master program (2023, winter study year)

Project no. 619239-EPP-1-2020-1-ME-EPPKA2-CBHE-JP

Curricula development. (the task is coordinated by UoM)

ECTS catalogues; obligatory and elective courses; development of curricula, literature and all other parts;

Teams were formed, curricula is developed for accreditation in MNE and ALB separately, then joining into joint programme

Two day event in Kotor in the beginning of July was performed

Any comments, prof. Danilo Nikolić?

DEV 2.2:

Based on the curricula prepared, the responsible colleagues for the courses prepare teaching materials and methodologies (scripts, PPT presentations, etc.);

During the development it would be suitable to share this material (via Google drive) so that our pedagogical experts would have an insight to propose adaptation for the e-learning part;

DEV 2.3.

Training, 2/3 days, Ljubljana: pedagogical approaches, adaptation of the content for e-learning delivery, use of Moodle LMS (approaches, motivating, engaging students), prerecorded lectures, online sessions; organizational aspects of blended learning

After curricula preparation: do you have an idea of the extent of online learning for your courses (estimation), e.g. 70% online, 30% live sessions?

DEV2.5

october 2023 - evaluation form for MEP&M lecturers; MEP&M “roadshow” for evaluators (2,3 days MNE and ALB universities, holding and monitoring lectures and pedagogical process
